The University reserves the right to alter the program format and/or costs in case of conditions beyond its control. See Study Abroad Office policies.

In addition to earning six credits from any two of four courses offered, program participants will become immersed in Chinese culture through various activities, including visits to the Bund, the TV tower, the Shanghai Museum, the 400-year old Yuyuan Gardens, a ride the MagLev train, a night cruise on the Huang Po River as the Shanghai skyline lights up, and a performance of the Shanghai Acrobats in Shanghai; visit Wuzhen—the Venice of the East; collaborate with and build lasting cultural bridges with Chinese Students at Zhejiang University, learn about Chinese Calligraphy and Traditional Chinese Medicine, visit a Tea Museum, enjoy a spectacular sound and light show on the West Lake, and performance of the Song dynasty show, and going Chinese students for an evening at KTV in Hangzhou; and visit the Great Wall, Tiananmen Square, the Empress Dowager Palace and the Temple of Heaven in Beijing.

Program Dates
15 May - June 22, 2017

Cost
TBD

Cost includes: non-refundable application charge, tuition, room & board, in-country excursions.

Airfare, visa fees, and personal expenses are not included.

Courses (Tentative)
Students choose two courses from the following 3-credit hour options, for a total of 6 credits for the entire program.

PS 231: Introduction to International Relations (3 credits)
ECE 331: Principles of Electrical Engineering
STS 490: Issues in Science, Technology, and Society: Geographies of Energy (3 credits)
FL 295: Intensive Chinese Language (3 credits)

Apply Now
studyabroad.ncsu.edu
Rolling admissions through February 15
Scholarships: apply by November 15

Contact
Dr. Clifford Griffin
ceg@ncsu.edu
(919) 515-5048